In the Gospel reading today, Luke clearly writes that Jesus saw 'their faith' and not just the faith of one man. It was their faith that brought the paralysed man to Jesus. What this means for us is that we too can bring people in front of Jesus. Our own faith in God can bring people before Him. - Now, more than ever we need our faith. We need our faith for ourselves but also for others - let us share our faith far and wide.

Please contact the school office if you have any concerns.
